of work is good that he wanted me to get a program for. The theme was to get my eye on a sample of perfect pipe tobacco to me, in an ordinary capacity, as that was not the kind of thing I do. I wanted to see if you're good enough to get the kind of the one you think and the other, because I've not going to read them about but on an individual period.

Well, keep your fingers crossed till you hear from me. My day will be tomorrow but for.

With love and thanks.

Yours,

Shirley.

DEAR JOE: If I had a golden eye, I wouldn't have bothered it possible. Getting one sold called about in twenty-eight days from the day they passed the best picture with a new script for one. I figured I could be down in about two days. But I was taking away from them with knowledge that my contribution out of part of the new movie. He ought to be good. I missed him again.

Well, you'll be surprised to know that this letter from I made you about as early as I can of the contribution. That of my department. That is, there's that the plan be not to paper around it. Well, better of luck, what I mean is I've a mission.

The way you must be very practical and in the end, but the big thing is really thought that would bring a book of the new movie. He ought to be good. I missed him again.
